ABOUT MOOT COURT COMMITTEE, SCHOOL OF LAW, BENNETT UNIVERSITY

The Moot Court Committee is one of the most important and prestigious committees of the law school. It aims to create a professional skills culture among the students at the School of Law by training them for national and international moot court competitions. Moot court is a simulated court experience where law students argue hypothetical cases, analyze legal issues, and engage in legal research and advocacy. These competitions are designed to simulate appellate court proceedings, allowing participants to develop and showcase their skills in legal research, writing, and oral advocacy. It is often comprised of law school faculty, students, and sometimes legal professionals who volunteer their time and expertise to contribute towards the professional experience of law students. The committees aim to provide a platform for participants to refine their legal skills and gain practical experience in the field of law.

IV CTIL-BENNETT INTERNATIONAL MOOT COURT COMPETITION, 2027

The global economy is increasingly shaped by the movement of services, capital, and investment across national borders, making the liberalization of trade in services and investment a critical aspect of contemporary international economic law. As nations enter into Free Trade Agreements (FTAs) to strengthen economic cooperation and promote cross-border commerce, disputes concerning market access, regulatory measures, investment protection, and the treatment of foreign service providers have become increasingly significant. Bennett University seeks to foster the next generation of legal minds by providing a platform to explore these complex and evolving dimensions of international trade and investment law.

The theme for this competition is 'Free Trade Agreement', a dynamic field that examines the legal challenges arising from commitments undertaken by States to liberalize trade in services and facilitate foreign investment. The theme encompasses critical issues such as market access, national treatment, most-favored-nation treatment, domestic regulation, investment protection, and the scope of State regulatory autonomy under FTAs. Participants will have the opportunity to engage with complex real-world legal disputes, interpret international treaties and investment chapters, analyses arbitral and judicial decisions, and develop compelling arguments on the balance between economic liberalization and legitimate State interests. The Bennett International Moot Court Competition promises to provide a stimulating forum for rigorous legal analysis, persuasive advocacy, and cross-cultural exchange, while deepening participants' understanding of the evolving framework governing international services and investment.
